GARDENS AND GREEN PROGRAM

Basic Disposition Requirements:

- A. Applicant must have the capacity to undertake the greening and maintenance of the lot.
- B. The property must be vacant land or property targeted for demolition.
- C. The property must be on the HCLRC’s available properties list, available at www.hamiltoncountylanbank.org.
- D. If the subject property is in an area where we have a neighborhood-based development partner, then the project must generally be approved by the applicable partner. The Landbank will solicit input from the partner when making its decision.

General Terms of Sale:

- A. Purchase Price: This will be based off the Price shown on the Landbank’s website for each property. These prices were developed using market research as well as analysis of each property’s viability for redevelopment and considers the total investment made by the Landbank to date. A lower offer price will only be considered if the applicant can demonstrate how a price reduction would increase the beneficial economic impact of the proposed project.
- B. Redevelopment Terms: All purchasers are required to green and landscape the vacant lot. This may include planting a garden or landscaping the property.
- C. Maintenance: The purchaser must agree to maintain the lot as a garden or landscaped green space.
- D. Property Taxes: The purchaser must agree to timely pay all property taxes that become due after the transfer.
